
Redistribution of Legislative Council Electoral Boundaries

Legislative Council Electoral Boundaries Act 1995 — Section 19

Notice of Inquiry

Public Hearing

The Redistribution Tribunal is to hold an inquiry, the subject of which is to be—

“Suggestions, comments and objections received in relation to the Initial Redistribution Proposal for the redistribution of the State’s 15 Legislative Council electoral divisions.”

The inquiry will be held in Hobart from 10am until 5pm Wednesday 1 March 2017 and from 2pm until 5pm on Thursday 2 March, on the 3rd floor, Taswater Building, 169 Main Rd, Moonah.

And will continue at Henty House Auditorium, Launceston from 10am on Friday 3 March 2017.

Any person who, or organisation which, has lodged a written submission no later than close of business on Monday 27 February 2017 has a right to be heard.

Those intending to lodge submissions and who wish to be heard at the inquiry are asked to contact the Executive Officer as soon as possible. Members of the public are welcome to attend. Written submissions can be lodged online, or sent to the Tribunal by post, facsimile or email.

Access to information

The information listed below is available at the redistribution website: www.lcredistribution.tas.gov.au

- Copy of the Initial Redistribution Proposal published on 28 January 2017;
- Reasons for the initial redistribution proposal;
- A summary of the provisions of the Legislative Council Electoral Boundaries Act, 1995;
- A summary of the redistribution process including the right of a person or organisation to make an initial objection;
- The procedure to be followed by the Redistribution Tribunal, and
- The effect of decisions made by the Redistribution Tribunal.

Statistics, electoral maps and other information on the initial proposal are also available from all Service Tasmania shopfronts.

Mike Blake – Chairperson of the Redistribution Tribunal
18 February 2017